

DRAFT AGENDA

DAY 1: 20 September 2012

ACADEMIC SESSIONS (pre-event):
Security Community building: bridging the theoretical-policy divide

19:00 Official Reception (Upon separate invitation)

20.30 Registration of the participants

21.00 Thursday Sessions (simultaneously organised smaller sessions, off the record)

Session 1: UNSCR 1325 in the region: translating policy into practice (in parthenrship with UNWOMEN)

Session 2: Frozen conflicts or frozen lives?

Session 3: Cyber Security: Are we responsive enough?

DAY 2: 21 September 2012

09.00 - 10.00 Registration of the participants

10.00 - 11.30 New paradigm of the region: is Balkans finally a success story?
(on the record)

11.30 - 12.00 Coffee and Networking Break

12.00 - 13.30 Plenary panel 1:
Is there an exit out of European crisis of economy and democracy? (co-organized with the Slovak Atlantic Commission)

13.30 - 15.00 Networking lunch

15:00-17:00 Friday Breakout Sessions (simultaneously organized smaller sessions, off the record)

Session 4: Crisis and opportunity: an unfinished peace in Kosovo (in partnership with Council for Inclusive Governance)

Session 5: Nordic model of cooperation on foreign and security policy

Session 6: China's new role in a world in crisis

Session 7: Fighting financial crisis: the Eurozone and beyond (co-organized with Economiczne Forum Poland)

17.30 - 19.00 Special Networking Meetings

Belgrade Centre for Security Policy 15 years Anniversary

Thematic Discussion: New energy partnerships: Is energy security source of concern or anchor of stability? (off the record)

20.00 Official Dinner (hosted by HOLCIM)
Kalemegdanska terasa

DAY 3: 22 September 2012

10.00 - 11.30 Plenary panel 2:
The consequences of crisis for human security at home and abroad

11:30 - 12:00 Coffee and Networking Break

12.00 - 13.30 Plenary panel 3:
Women and the Crisis: is there a different approach to confronting challenges? (co-organized with UNWOMEN)

13.30 - 14.00 Closing Address

14.00 Cocktail Lunch